

YOU 177 Economic Innovation Forum
York University, November 2, 2015

PROGRAM

Registration, Coffee and Networking (8:00-8:55 am)

Welcome (9:00-9:05 am)

Dr. Harvey Skinner, Founding Dean, Faculty of Health, York University

YOU 177 and Forum Overview (9:05-9:25 am)

Brian Puppa, Director, Legacy Project

Susan V. Bosak, Founder and Lead Researcher/Educator, Legacy Project

A Big-Picture Global Perspective (9:25-9:30 am)

Video excerpts from keynote by

The Honourable Jigmi Y. Thinley, former Prime Minister of Bhutan
at the Beyond GDP Symposium at Humber College, May, 2015

Bringing It Home: Ontario Communities (9:30-9:40 am)

Opening Remarks by The Honourable Elizabeth Dowdeswell, OC, OOnt
Lieutenant Governor of Ontario

Glocal Panel: Interconnections between the Economic and the Ecological, Physical and Social Health of Communities
(9:40-10:45 am)

Moderators:

Brian Puppa, Director, Legacy Project

Susan V. Bosak, Founder and Lead Researcher/Educator, Legacy Project

Speakers:

Eric Miller, Faculty of Environmental Studies (Ecological Economics),
York University

Rahul K. Bhardwaj, President and CEO, Toronto Foundation

Harvey Skinner, Founding Dean, Faculty of Health, York University

Karen Dubeau, Director of Partner Engagement, ventureLAB and former Vice President, Newmarket Chamber of Commerce

Break (10:45-11:00 am)

7-Generation Principles (11:00-11:15 am)

Susan V. Bosak, Founder and Lead Researcher/Educator, Legacy Project

Page | 2

Glocal Panel (cont): Exploring Issues & Ideas

(11:15 am-12:15 pm)

Key Questions: What do we value and why? How can we realign a market society? How can we practically integrate long-term economic, ecological, physical and social health in a 7-Generation Community?

Video excerpts of international voices with panel / audience discussion

Lunch in Community Theme Working Groups (12:15 -1:15 pm)

Whitchurch-Stouffville as a Case Study (1:15-1:45 pm)

Greetings from Carolyn Nordheimer James, CEO, WS Public Library and Harry Renaud, Executive Director, Stouffville Chamber of Commerce. Spark voices on community themes.

Thematic Exploration of Actionable Ideas (1:45-2:45 pm)

Working group brainstorming and resource potluck around community themes:

Social Entrepreneurs, Knowledge, Technology, and Service Businesses; Places and Spaces; Green(belt) Opportunities; Food and Agriculture; Wellbeing, Creative and Learning.

Break (2:45-3:00 pm)

Painting Your Picture (3:00-3:30 pm)

Groups create idea boards.

Share Your Picture (3:30-4:15 pm)

Groups show, share, and discuss idea boards. Consensus and commitment seeking for community action.

7-Generation Community: Where To From Here? (4:15-4:30 pm)

Susan V. Bosak, Founder and Lead Researcher/Educator, Legacy Project